

Complete as much as possible before reading. Add more information if you discover more while reading.

Complete as you read, one passage of original text at a time.
Note: if you fully comprehend the text without this portion, you do not need to fill it out. This is to help you make your way through complicated text.

Use the rest of your work to fill this section in after you've read and deciphered the entire document.

Purpose

Biases

Historical Background

Original Text	Summary	Questions/Terms

Conclusion/Main Ideas

